(xiv) A ballot paper will be invalid :

(a) if it does not bear the initials of the Registrar or the Returning Officer as the case may be ; or

(b) if a voter signs his name or writes any word, or makes any mark on it, by which it becomes recognisable ; or

(c) if no vote is recorded thereon by placing a cross mark thus “X” against the names of the candidate or candidates for whom the voter wishes to vote ; or

(d) if the number of votes recorded thereon exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled; or

(e) if it is void for uncertainty ; or

(f) if it violates any other statutes :

Provided that where more than one vote can be given on the same ballot paper, if one of the marks is so placed as to render it doubtful to which candidates it is intended to apply, the vote concerned but not the whole ballot paper, shall be in valid on that account.

(xv) The nominee who secures the largest number of votes shall be declared duly elected. When two or more nominees receive an equal number of votes the final election shall be made by drawing lots in such manner as the Returning Officer may determine.

ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS FROM THE TELANGANA LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY AND TELANGANA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

39. The procedure shall be that prescribed in Statutes 37 and 38 (i) to (iv) (c) and also the following Statutes.

40. (i) If the number of candidates who are validly nominated and who have not withdrawn their candidature in the manner and within the time specified, does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, all such candidates shall be declare duly elected.

(ii) If the number of such candidates is less than the number of vacancies to be filled all such candidates. Shall be declared duly elected ; and the constituency shall be called upon to elect a person or persons, as the case may be, to fill the remaining vacancies.

(iii) If the conditions stipulated in clauses (i) and (ii) above are satisfied and subject to the stipulation that the candidate or candidates express in writing at or before the time of scrutiny of the nominations, their intention not to withdraw their candidature, the Returning Officer or other person authorised by him, may declare, on the last day and hour fixed for scrutiny of nominations, all such candidates duly elected.

(iv) If the number of such candidates exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, the election shall be proceeded with in the number prescribed in the following Statutes.

(v) The Registrar or the Returning Officer shall send to each elector by post (1) a number declaration paper, (2) a ballot paper which shall contains the names of the candidates with their addresses arranged in alphabetical order and which shall also bear on it the Registrar's or the Returning Officer's initials and the date of posting, (3) a ballot paper cover (smaller cover) (4) a numbered envelope addressed to the Registrar or the Returning Officer, and (5) a letter of intimation stating the number of vacancies to be filled, the date and hour fixed for the poll, and the place, the day and hour fixed for the scrutiny and counting of votes. The ballot papers shall be sent by post to the address entered against the name of the elector in the electoral roll, or if the elector has since the publication or preparation of the roll changed his address and intimated the fact in writing the Registrar or the Returning Officer not later than fourteen days before the date fixed for the despatch of the ballot paper, to the address so given.

(vi) The date fixed for the poll shall, be not less than fourteen clear days after the date of the ballot paper.

(vii) The elector shall, after filling up the declaration paper and the ballot paper in accordance with the directions given in the letter of intimation, (1) enclose the ballot paper in the ballot paper cover (smaller cover) and stick it, and (2) put the ballot paper cover and the declaration paper in the envelope addressed to the Registrar or the Returning Officer and (3) send the envelope by registered post, so as to reach the Registrar or the Returning Officer, not later than the day and the latest hour fixed for the poll.

Provided that, at his option, the elector, may either in person or by an agent deposit or cause to be deposited the envelope addressed to the Registrar or the Returning Officer in the ballot box provided for the purpose on the day and during the hours fixed for the poll. The number for whom each elector may vote may be less than, or equal to, but shall not be more than, the number of vacancies to be filled.

(viii) An elector who has not received his ballot and other connected papers sent by post, or who has lost them, or whose papers, before their dispatch back to the Registrar or the Returning Officer by him,- have been inadvertently spoilt, may transmit a declaration to that effect signed by himself and require the Registrar or the Returning Officer to send him new (duplicate) papers in place of those not received, lost or spoilt; and if the papers have been spoilt, the spoilt papers shall be returned to the Registrar or the Returning Officer shall cancel them on receipt. In every case when new papers are issued, they shall be subscribed as "Duplicate" and a mark shall be placed against the number of the elector's name in the register of electoral roll to denote that new (duplicate) papers have been issued in place of those not received,-lost or spoilt.

(ix) On the day and at the hour appointed for the scrutiny and counting of votes the envelopes received through post from the elections by the Registrar or the Returning Officer and those deposited in the ballot box shall be scrutinised and for this purpose the procedure prescribed in clauses, (xi) and (xii) of statute 38 shall be applicable.

(x) All voters shall be entitled to vote. Each voter shall have one transferable vote.

(xi) The ballot paper cover, other than those rejected under clause (ix) above shall be opened and the ballot papers taken out and mixed together in the presence of the Returning Officer. He shall then proceed to count the votes, rejecting as invalid and ballot paper.

(a) if it does not bear the initials of the Registrar, or

(b) if a voter signs his name or writes any word, or makes and mark, by which it becomes recognizable ; or

(c) if the figure I is not marked; or

(d) if the figure I is set opposite to the names of more than one candidate; or

(e) if the figure 1 and some other figure are set opposite to the name of the same candidate, or

(f) if it is void for uncertainty; or

(g) if it violates any other statute.

On every paper so rejected, the Returning Officer shall endorse the word “Invalid” and such paper shall be kept in a separate bundle.

(xii) The Returning Officer shall arrange the ballot papers (other than invalid papers) in parcels according to the first preference recorded therein for each candidate. He shall then count the number of papers in each parcel and credit each candidate with one vote in respect of each paper on which a first preference has been recorded for him. The Returning Officer shall also ascertain the total number of valid papers in all the parcels so arranged.

(xiii) The Returning Officer shall then divide the total number of valid papers in all the parcels by a number exceeding by one the number of vacancies to be filled and the result increased by one, disregarding any fractional remainder, shall be the number of Votes sufficient to secure the return of a candidate (hereinafter called the “Quota”).

(xiv) If, at any time, a number of candidates equal to the number of persons to be elected, has obtained the quota, such, candidates shall be declared as duly elected and no further steps shall be taken.

(xv) If at any time the number of votes credited to a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, that candidate shall be deemed elected.

(xvi) If the number of the papers in the parcel of such a candidate is equal to the quota, the papers shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(xvii) (1) If the number of votes credited to an elected candidate is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of this Statutes to the continuing candidates, indicated on the ballot papers in the parcel of the elected candidate as being next in order of the voter's preference.

(2) (a) If the votes credited to an elected candidate consist of original votes only, the Returning Officer shall examine all the papers in the parcel of the elected candidate whose surplus is to be transferred and shall arrange the unexhausted papers in sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon.

(b) If the votes credited to an elected candidate consist of original and transferred votes or of transferred votes only, the Returning Officer shall examine the papers contained in the sub-paragraph last received by the elected candidate and shall arrange the unexhausted papers therein in further sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon.

(c) In either case, the Returning Officer shall make a separate sub-paragraph of the exhausted papers and shall ascertain the number of papers in each sub-paragraph of unexhausted papers and in the sub-paragraph of exhausted papers.

(3) If the total number of papers in the sub-parcels of unexhausted papers is equal to or less than the surplus, the Returning Officer shall transfer each sub-paragraph of unexhausted papers to the continuing candidate indicated thereon as the voter's next preference.

(4) (a) If the total number of unexhausted papers is greater than the surplus, the Returning Officer shall transfer from each sub-paragraph the number of papers which bears the same proportion to the number of papers which bears the same proportion to the number of papers in the sub-paragraph as the surplus bears to the total number of unexhausted papers.

(b) The number of papers to be transferred from each sub-paragraph shall be ascertained by multiplying the number of papers in the sub-paragraph by the surplus and dividing the result by the total number of unexhausted papers. A note shall be made of the fractional parts, if any, of each number so ascertained.

(c) If, owing to the existence of such fractional parts, the number of papers to be transferred is less than the surplus, as many of these fractional parts taken in the order of their magnitude, beginning with the largest, as are necessary to make the total number of papers to be transferred equal to the surplus, shall be reckoned as the value of unity, and the remaining fractional parts shall be ignored. If two or more fractional parts are of equal magnitude, that fractional part shall be deemed to be the larger which arises from the larger sub-paragraph and if the sub-parcels in question are equal in size preference shall be given to the candidate who obtained the larger number of original votes.

(d) The particular papers to be transferred from each sub-parcel shall be those last field in the sub-parcel.

(e) Each paper transferred shall be marked in such a manner as to indicate the candidate from and to whom the transfer is made.

(5) (a) If more than one candidate has a surplus the largest surplus shall be first dealt with.

(b) If two or more candidates have each the same surplus regard shall be had to the number of original votes obtained by each candidate and the surplus of the candidate credited with the largest number of original votes shall be first dealt with and if the numbers of the original vote are equal, the Returning Officer, at his discretion, shall decide which surplus he will first dealt with.

(c) The Returning Officer need not transfer the surplus of an elected candidate when that surplus, together with any other surplus not transferred, is less than the difference between the total of the votes credited to the two continuing candidates lowest on the poll.

(xviii) (1) If, at any time, no candidate has a surplus (or when under the proceeding Statute any existing surplus need not to be transferred) and one or more vacancies remain unfilled, the Returning Officer shall exclude from the poll, the candidate credited with lowest number of votes, and shall examine all the papers of that candidate, and shall arrange the unexhausted papers in sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon for the continuing candidates, and shall transfer each sub-parcel to the candidate for whom that preference is recorded. The Returning Officer shall make a separate sub-parcel of the exhausted papers.

(2) If the total of the votes of the two or 'more candidate- lowest on the poll, together with any surplus votes not transferred is less than the votes credited to the next highest candidate, the Returning Officer, in one operation, exclude those candidates from the poll and transfer their votes in accordance with the preceding clause.

(3) If, when a candidate has to be excluded under this Statute, two or more candidates have each the same number- of votes and are lowest on the poll, regard shall be had to the number of originals votes credited to each of those candidates and the candidate with fewest original votes shall be excluded, and where the number of the original votes are equal, regard shall be had to the total number of votes credited to those candidates at the first transfer at which they had unequal number of votes and the candidate with the lowest number of votes at that transfer shall be excluded and where the number of votes credited to those candidates were equal at all transfers, the Returning Officer shall decide by casting lots which candidate shall be excluded.

(xix) (1) Whenever any transfer is made under any of the proceeding clauses, each sub-parcel of papers transferred shall be added to the parcel, if any, of the papers of the candidate to whom the transfer is made, and that candidate shall be credited with one vote in respect of each paper transferred. Such papers as are not transferred, shall be set aside as finally dealt with and the votes given thereon shall thence forth, not be taken into account.

(2) If, after any transfer, a candidate has a surplus, that candidate shall be declared elected and the surplus shall be dealt with the manner hereinbefore provided before any other candidate is excluded.

(xix) (a) (1) When the number of continuing candidates is reduced to the number of vacancies remaining unfilled, the counting candidates shall be declared elected.

(2) When only one vacancy remains unfilled, and the number of votes of a counting candidate exceeds the total of all the votes of the other continuing candidates, together with any surplus votes not transferred, that candidate shall be declared elected;

(3) When at the end of any count, only one vacancy remains unfilled and there are only two continuing candidates and each of them has the same number of votes and no surplus votes remain capable of transfer, the returning officer shall decide by lot which of the two candidates shall be excluded; and after excluding him in the manner aforesaid, declare the other candidate to be elected.

(xx) The Returning Officer shall then declare the names of the candidates who have been duly elected.

(xxi) Any candidate or his agent may at any time during the counting of votes, either before the commencement or after completion of any transfer of votes (whether surplus or otherwise), request the Returning Officer to reexamine and recount the papers of all or any candidate (not being papers set aside at any previous transfer as finally dealt with), and the Returning Officer may also at his discretion recount votes either once or more often, in any case, in which he is not satisfied as to the accuracy of any previous count, provided that nothing herein shall make it obligatory on the part of the Returning Officer to recount the same votes more than once.

In the above statutes:

(1) "Continuing Candidate" means any candidate not elected or not excluded from the poll at any given time.

(2) "First preference" means the figure " 1 " , "Second preference" means the figure "2" "third preference" means the figure " 3 " and so on, set opposite to the name of any candidate.

(3) "Unexhausted papers" means ballot papers on which a second or subsequent preference is recorded for a continuing candidate.

(4) "Exhausted papers" means ballot papers on which no second or subsequent preference is recorded for a continuing candidate.

Provided that a ballot paper shall also be deemed to be exhausted in any case in which:-

(a) the names of two or more candidates (whether counting or not) are marked with the same figure and are next in order of preference : or

(b) the name of the candidate next in order of preference whether continuing or not is marked :

(i) by a figure not following consequently after some other figure on the ballot paper : or

(ii) by two or more figures :

(5) “Original Vote” in regard to any candidate means a vote derived from a ballot paper on which a first preference is recorded for that candidate.

(6) “Transferred Vote” in regard to any candidate means a vote credited to such candidate which is derived from a ballot paper on which a second or subsequent preference is recorded for that candidate.

(7) “Surplus” means the number of votes by which the total number of the votes original and transferred, credited to, any candidate exceeds the quota as defined in these statutes.

(xxiii) The returning officer shall prepare a form showing the following, namely :

(1) the number of electors who voted ;

(2) the number of ballot papers rejected ;

(a) as being received too late ;

(b) for being sent by ordinary post or in other than the prescribed days;

(c) for irregularities connected with the declaration ;and

(d) as invalid :

41. Election of a member from the Indian Council of Agricultural Education: When a vacancy of the member of the Board of Management elected from the Indian Council of Agricultural Education occurs or is about to occur, the Registrar shall under the direction of the Vice-Chancellor, request the Secretary of the Indian Council of Agricultural Education to arrange for an election to fill the vacancy. The Secretary of the Indian Council of Agricultural Education or the officer authorised by him shall be the Returning Officer for the said election and he shall communicate to the Registrar the name of the person elected.

ii) An officer may be placed under suspension from the University service pending investigation or enquiry into grave charges, where such suspension is necessary in the interest of the University;

iii) The authority which may impose on an officer the penalties of (a) censure (b) withholding of increments or stoppage of efficiency bar and (c) suspension, shall be the Vice-Chancellor.

iv) The authority which may impose on an officer the penalty of (a) reduction to a lower post, or (b) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the University by negligence or breach of orders, or (c) removal from service of the University which does not disqualify from future employment or (d) dismissal from the service of the University which ordinarily disqualifies from future employment, shall be the appointing authority;

v) No penalty shall be imposed unless the officer has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him.

vi) The grounds on which it is proposed to take action under clause (iv) shall be reduced to the form of a definite charge or charges which shall be communicated in writing to the officer concerned and shall be required within a reasonable time to state in writing whether he admits the truth of all or any of the charges, what explanation or defence, if any, he has to offer and whether he desires to be heard in person. If he so desires or if the competent authority so directs an oral enquiry shall be held at which all evidence shall be heard as to such of the charges as are not admitted. The persons charged shall be entitled to cross examine the witnesses, to have such witnesses called as he may wish, provided that the Officer conducting the enquiry may for reasons to be recorded in writing refuse to call any witness. The proceedings shall contain sufficient record of this evidence and a statement of the findings and the grounds thereof.

vii) No officer who is called upon to produce his defence as to charges which form the subject of any enquiry against him shall be allowed to engage counsel.

viii) After the enquiry against an officer has been completed and after the punishing authority has arrived at a provisional conclusion in regard to the penalty to be imposed is dismissal or removal from service be supplied with a copy of the report of the enquiry authority and he will be called upon to show cause within a reasonable time, not ordinarily exceeding one month, against the particular penalty proposed to be inflicted upon him. Any representation submitted by the accused in this behalf shall be taken into consideration before final orders are passed.

10. Appeal: An appeal against the order passed by the Vice-Chancellor under clause (iii) of statute 9 shall lie to the appointing authority, provided that it is preferred within a period of ninety days from the date of the order appealed against.

11. Allowances and leave during suspension : (i) An Officer under suspension shall be entitled to subsistence allowance at an amount equal to leave salary and dearness allowance, if any, which an officer would have drawn if he had been on leave on half pay;

Provided that where the period of suspension exceeds twelve months, the authority which passed or is deemed to have passed the orders of suspension shall be competent to vary the amount of subsistence amount for any period subsequent to the period of the first twelve months as follows:

a) the amount of subsistence allowance may be increased by a suitable amount not exceeding fifty per cent of the subsistence allowance admissible during the period of first twelve months, if in the opinion of the said authority, the period of suspension has been prolonged for reasons to be recorded in writing, not directly attributable to the Officer.

b) the amount of subsistence allowance may be reduced by a suitable amount, not exceeding fifty percent of the subsistence allowance, admissible during the period of the first twelve months, if, in the opinion of the said authority the period of suspension has been prolonged due to reasons, to be recorded in writing, directly attributable to the Officer.

c) the rate of dearness allowance will be based on the increased or, as the case may be, the decreased amount of subsistence allowance admissible under sub-clauses (a) and (b).

(ii) No payment under clause (i) shall be made unless the Officer furnishes a certificate that he is not engaged in any other employment, business, profession or vocation.

(iii) A suspended Officer shall not be entitled to any leave for the period of suspension.

(iv) Arrears of subsistence due to an officer shall not be with held, but it shall be paid to him after adjusting the same against the following amounts, if any, due by him to the University.

(a) house rent and allied charges, i.e.. Electricity, Water, Furniture etc.

(b) repayment of loans and advances taken from the University at such rates as the University may fix;

(c) over payments having due regard to the circumstances of each case. Recoveries of over payments from the Officer under suspension should not ordinarily be made at a rate greater than one third of the amount of subsistence allowance, exclusive of dearness allowance, if any, admissible under clause (i) above,

(v) If an officer under suspension is dismissed or removed from service, arrears of subsistence allowance, if any, due to him upto the date of termination of proceedings should be paid to him.

12. Pay on reinstatement after suspension: When an Officer who was suspended is finally reinstated, he shall get full pay unless the competent authority has expressly ordered a deduction to be made for suspension period as a punishment.

13. Increments and efficiency bar :

1) An increment shall ordinarily be drawn, as a matter of course, but the competent authority may with hold the increment if the conduct of the officer has not been good or his work not found satisfactory. Where an efficiency bar has been prescribed in a time scale, the increment next above the efficiency bar shall not be given without the specific, sanction of the appointing authority.

2) All duty in a time scale counts for increments in that time scale.

3) Service in another post, whether in a substantive or officiating capacity, carrying the same or higher time scale of pay and the service on foreign service and leave other than extraordinary leave counts for increments in the time scale applicable to the post on which the officer holds a lien or should have held a lien, had his lien not been suspended.

Provided that extraordinary leave taken for foreign study shall count for increment.

4) The Board of Management may, for adequate reasons recorded, grant premature increments to an officer on a time scale of pay.

14) Conduct and Discipline:

i) Acceptance of work outside the University: An Officer shall ordinarily devote his whole time to the service of the University and shall not without express permission of the Vice-Chancellor engage directly in any trade or business whatsoever or any other work which in the opinion of the Vice-Chancellor may interfere with the proper discharge of his duties.

ii) General Conduct: No officer shall take part in any act or movement calculated in the judgement of the Vice-Chancellor to bring the University into disrepute. It shall be the duty of every one of the Officers to honour the confidence reposed in him by the University and not to divulge any information obtained by him in the cause of his official duties to outsiders or to make any use thereof which would be improper.

iii) Discussion of the policy or action of the University :

The Officers of the University shall not indulge in any public criticism of the University Administration in such manner as savours of defiance and Insubordination or cause or is likely to cause embarrassment to the administration in its relation to its staff or students of the Colleges. Nor shall it be permissible for them to indulge in criticisms, which will embarrass the University administration in its relation to members of the different communities among the staff or the students.

iv) Taking part in politics : (a) An Officer of the University shall not take part in politics or stand for elections unless Board of Management is satisfied that in their conduct and demeanour they will observe the restraint, dignity and courtesy enjoined by the University traditions and unless the Board of Management is further satisfied that their political and other public activities do not conflict or interfere with their duties to the University. The decision of the Board of Management in these matters is final.

b) If an Officer of the University by speeches or otherwise seeks to mislead the students into activities which in the judgement of the Board of Management are objectionable, he is punishable for dereliction of duty.

v) General Discipline : All Officers of the University, whether paid a salary or not or whether in receipt of honoraria or allowances and whether full time or part time, be held to be under the General internal discipline of the University and such rules of disciplines as are enforced, or as may be made, from time to time.

vi) Lending and Borrowing : No officer shall-

a) directly or indirectly engaged in the business of money lending ;

b) save in the ordinary course of business with a bank or corporation or a firm of standing, borrow money from or otherwise place himself under pecuniary obligation to any person on whom he can exercise official authority;

c) the prohibition in clauses (a) (b) shall not apply to:

1) an Officer who lends money while acting as an executor, administrator or a trustee without profit or advantage to himself;

2) an officer who belongs to a joint Hindu Family carrying on the business or money-lending as an ancestral profession, provided he takes no active part in that business;

3) any transaction of an Officer with a Co-operative society registered or deemed to have been registered under the A.P. Co-operative Societies Act. 1964.

vii) Acceptance of Gifts : No officer shall place himself under any form of Official obligation by himself accepting or permitting any member of his family to accept from any person any gift.

viii) Raising subscriptions : No officer shall without obtaining the previous sanction of the Vice-Chancellor ask for or accept or in any way participate in the raising of any subscription or other pecuniary assistance in pursuance of any object whatsoever except for routine farewell and felicitation functions connected with the University.

ix) Movable and immovable property : (a) No Officer shall except after previous intimation to the Vice-Chancellor, acquire or dispose of any moveable property in the shape of shares, securities or debentures of any immovable property, by loans mortgage, sales, gift or otherwise either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family.

Provided that this restriction shall not apply in the case of moveable or immoveable property whose value does not exceed Rs. 1,000 (Rupees one thousand only.)

b) The Board may, at any time by general or special order, require its Officers to submit within a period specified in the said order, a full and complete statement of such moveable or immoveable property held or acquired by him or by any member of his family as may be specified in the order. Such statements shall, if so required by the Board, include details of the reasons by which or the source from which such property was acquired.

Note: For purposes of this statute, 'family' includes the wife or husband and children including adopted son and step children of an officer residing with or wholly dependent on him.

x) Vindication of acts and character of the Officers of the University, No Officer shall, without the previous sanction of, the Board, have recourse to any Court or to the press for vindication of his public acts or character from defamatory attacks. In granting sanction to the recourse to a court the University, will in each case, decide whether it will itself bear the costs of the proceedings or whether the officer will institute the proceedings at his own expense and if so, whether in the event of a decision in his favour the University will reimburse to him to the extent of the whole or any part of the costs.

Nothing in this statute will limit or otherwise effect the right of any Officer to vindicate his private acts or character.

(xi) Taking part in strikes or similar activities : No Officer shall take part in any act or movement such as strike, incitement thereto or a similar activity in connection with any matter pertaining to his service or to any other matter, which tends to bring the University to disrepute.

xii) Influencing superior authorities for furtherance of Interest: No Officer shall bring or attempt to bring any kind of influence to bear upon any superior officer or a member of any University authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service in the University.

15. Lien: i) An Officer when appointed substantively to a permanent post, acquires lien on that post and ceases to hold any lien previously acquired in any other post;

ii) An Officer shall not be appointed substantively to a post in which another officer holds a lien;

iii) Two or more University employees shall not be appointed substantively on the same permanent post at the same time.

iv) Suspension of lien : The Board may, at its option, suspend the lien of an officer on a permanent post which he holds substantively if he is transferred whether in a substantive or officiating capacity to a post in another cadre and if there is reason to believe that he will remain absent from the post on which he holds a lien for a period of not less than three years.

16. Declaration of Age : An Officer appointed by direct recruitment shall make a declaration of age to the appointing authority at the time of his entry into the service of the University based on his S.S.L.C Register or such other documentary proof as may be acceptable to the appointing authority upon which the age will be admitted. After the declaration of age and acceptance of the same by the appointing authority, it shall be binding on him and no revision of such age shall be allowed to be made at a later date for any purpose whatsoever.

17. Termination of Service or Resignation : i) The Services of a temporary officer who has not been appointed in accordance with the procedure prescribed in the Act or the Statutes are liable to be terminated at any time without notice and without assigning any reasons therefor.

ii) A permanent Officer shall be required to give three months notice, in case he desires to be relieved or he shall pay to the University three months salary in lieu of such notice, unless otherwise directed by the Board of Management, iii) An Officer before leaving the University service shall handover the charge of his post to a duly authorised Officer and shall return to the university all books, apparatus, furniture, etc., issued to him for his personal use and shall pay up in full, all the charges due from him for occupation of residential quarter etc. If he fails to do so, the amount due from him on the above items shall be recovered from his last salary or the Provident Fund or any other sums due to him.

iv) An Officer who is in the occupation of residential accommodation of the University shall, on leaving service of the University, vacate the residence allotted to him by the University.

18. Leave: Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When the exigencies of service so required, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

19. Authority to Grant Leave : The Vice-Chancellor shall be the competent authority to grant leave to all Officers.

20. Earned leave: (i) The earned leave admissible to an officer of the university shall be 1/11th of the period spent in the service of the University, provided that he will cease to earn such leave when the earned leave accumulates to 300 days and provided further that this limit of 300 days will not be applicable in the case of Officers! on deputation with the University on foreign service terms, who will continue to be governed by the rules applicable to them in their parent department.

21. Medical Leave and Leave on Private Affairs : Leave on medical certificate and leave on private affairs may be granted to an Officer at any time according to the rules of the Government of Telangana and subject to such limitation as the competent authority may, in each instance in which such leave is applied for, determine.

22. Extraordinary Leave: The competent authority may in its discretion, for any special reason grant an Officer extraordinary leave of absence, but such leave shall be without pay and shall not ordinarily exceed six months at a time and shall also not count towards gratuity.

Provided that the maximum total period for which such leave may be granted shall not ordinarily exceed two years.

23. Maternity Leave: Subject to the conditions herein-after specified, the competent authority may grant to married women, maternity leave for a period which may extend upto two months. Non-permanent Officers should take for maternity purposes the earned leave for which they may be eligible. If however a non-permanent Officer is not eligible for any earned leave or if the leave to her credit is less than two months, maternity leave may be granted for a period not exceeding two months, or for the period that falls short of two months, as the case may be.

Note: 1) Approved probationers may also be granted maternity leave as for permanent employees;

2) Maternity leave may be granted in continuation of other kinds of leave;

- 3) Leave of any other kind may be granted in continuation of maternity leave if the request for its grant is supported by medical certificate;
- 4) Maternity leave shall not be debited against the leave account.

24. Special Casual Leave : Special Casual Leave (quarantine leave) not counting against ordinary casual leave shall be granted to an officer when he is required to absent himself from duty owing to any of the following infectious diseases or any other disease declared by the Public Health authorities as infectious, in his House, for such period as may be recommended by the Health Department of the locality.

1. Small-pox
2. Chicken-pox
3. Plague
4. Cholera
5. Typhoid
6. Acute Influenza Pneumonia
7. Diphtheria
8. Cerebro-spinal meningites.

The period of this leave shall be treated as duty for purposes of calculation of other kinds of leave.

Note : When the officer himself catches the infection, regular leave to which he is eligible shall be taken by him.

25. Casual Leave : Casual leave admissible to an Officer shall be fifteen days in a year. It cannot be combined with any other leave but can be combined with holidays, provided that the total period of absence including holidays does not exceed ten days at a time.

26. Record of Service : There shall be a Service Register for every Officer giving history of his service from the date of his appointment including increment, promotion, reward, punishment and all other special events in his service. The service Registers shall also contain a leave account form for the Officer showing a complete record of all leave (except Casual leave), earned as well as unearned, taken by him.

27. Retirement and Extension :

a) For the purpose of this Statute, the officers of the University shall be classified into the following two groups, namely:

- Group-I :
